Chapter 107.

An Act to amend Chapter four hundred and fifty of the Private and Special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, incorporating the City of Eastport.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 29, chapter 450, special laws of 1893, amended.

Assessors, election, powers and duties.

Section 1. To amend section twenty-nine, by striking out the words "one from each ward," so that it shall read:

'Section 29. There shall be elected a board of four assessors on the third Monday in March annually, or as soon as may be thereafter, regardless of ward lines, by the city council by a majority of all its members, by roll call. The compensation of the assessors shall be fixed by city council and shall not be increased or diminished during the municipal year for which they are elected. The assessors shall hold office until the third Monday in March following their election and until their successors are chosen and qualified. All taxes shall be assessed, apportioned and collected in the same manner prescribed by the laws of the state relative to town taxes, but the city council may establish further or additional provisions for the collection thereof.'

Powers of overseer of poor.

Section 2. Paragraph six of section thirty of same chapter be so amended that one overseer shall exercise the power of overseers of the poor instead of three as now provided.

Section 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 8, 1899.
