basis of taxation on such property, deducting the assessed value of the real estate of any bank, trust and banking or safe deposit company, as herein provided.'

Approved March 19, 1901.

Chapter 209.

An Act to fix the salary of the Judge of Probate in and for the County of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Salary of judge of probate for Washington county fixed.

Section 1. The salary of the judge of probate in and for the county of Washington shall be seven hundred dollars a year instead of the sum now fixed by law, which shall be paid to him out of the county treasury in equal quarterly payments.

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 19, 1901.

Chapter 210.

An Act to amend Section seventeen of Chapter seventeen of the Revised Statutes, relating to Stationary Engines.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 17,
chapter 17, R.
S., amended.

Section seventeen of chapter seventeen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting in the first line of said section after the word "stationary," the words 'gasoline or,' so that when said section is amended, it shall read as follows:

Stationary
gasoline or steam engine
not to be used without license from town officers.

'Section 17. No stationary, gasoline or steam engine shall be erected in a town until the municipal officers have granted license therefor, designating the place where the buildings therefor shall be erected, the materials and mode of construction, the size of the boiler and furnace, and such provision as to height of chimney or flues, and protection against fire and explosion, as they judge proper for the safety of the neighborhood. Such license shall be granted on written application, recorded in the town records, and a certified copy of it furnished, without charge, to the applicant.'

Approved March 19, 1901.
