Section 1. No person shall go about from town to town, or from place to place in the same town, exposing for sale or selling, any goods or chattels other than fruit grown in the United States, fruit trees, provisions, live animals, brooms, pianos, organs, wagons, sleighs, agricultural implements, fuel, newspapers, agricultural products of the United States, the product of his own labor or the labor of his family, any map made by him and copyrighted in his name, any patent of his own invention, or in which he has become interested by being a member of any firm, or stockholder in any corporation which has purchased the patent, until he shall have procured a license so to do as hereinafter provided.

Secretary of state shall
grant license,
and to whom.

Section 2. The secretary of state shall grant a license, to go about exposing for sale and selling, any goods, wares or merchandise, to any person who files in his office a certificate signed by the mayor of a city, or by the majority of the selectmen of a town, stating to their best knowledge and belief that the applicant therein named is of good moral character; but such license shall be granted to no other person. The mayor or selectmen before granting such certificate, shall require the applicant to make oath, that he is the person named therein, and the mayor or said selectmen are hereby authorized to administer said oath.

—applicant
must make oath that he is the person
named in certificate.

What shall be inserted in license.

Section 3. The secretary shall cause to be inserted in every such license the names of such cities and towns as the applicant selects, with the sums to be paid to the respective treasurers thereof, as provided in the following section, and shall receive from the applicant one dollar for each city and town so inserted. Every person so licensed may sell as aforesaid, in any city or town mentioned in his license, any goods, wares or merchandise upon first paying the required sum to the treasurer of such city
