visits he shall have free access to its vaults, books and papers, and shall thoroughly inspect and examine all the affairs of said corporation, and make such inquiries as may be necessary to ascertain its condition and ability to fulfill all its engagements. If upon examination of said corporation the examiner is of the opinion that its investments are not in accordance with law, or said corporation is insolvent, or its condition is such as to render its further proceedings hazardous to the public or to those having funds in its custody, or is of the opinion that it has exceeded its powers or failed to comply with any of the rules or restrictions provided by law, he shall have such authority and take such action as is provided for in the case of savings banks by chapter forty-seven of the revised statutes. He shall preserve in a permanent form a full record of his proceedings, including a statement of the condition of said corporation. A copy of such statement shall be published by said corporation immediately after the annual examination of the same in some newspaper published where said corporation is established. If no paper is published in the town where said corporation is established, then it shall be published in a newspaper printed in the nearest city or town. The necessary expenses of the bank examiner while making such examination shall be paid by the corporation.

—proceedings when business becomes hazardous.

—publish statement.

—expenses, how paid.

Section 16. Any three of the incorporators named in this act may call the first meeting of the corporation by mailing a written notice, signed by all, postage paid, to each of the other incorporators, seven days at least before the day of the meeting, naming the time, place and purpose of such meeting, and at such meeting the necessary officers may be chosen, by-laws adopted, and any other corporate business transacted.

Chapter 477.

An Act to amend Chapter two hundred and thirteen of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, authorizing Simeon G. Davis, his associates and assigns, to construct and maintain a wharf and boathouse in lake Maranocook, in the town of Winthrop.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Chapter two hundred and thirteen of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five is hereby amended by striking out the words "both to be located at or near the outlet of said lake" in the seventh line and inserting instead thereof

Chapter 213,
Special laws
1895, amended

CHAP. 478

the words, 'said wharf and boathouse, nor either of them, shall not be located within two hundred feet of the bridge across the outlet of said lake,' so that said chapter, as amended, shall read as follows:

S. G. Davis authorized to construct a wharf in Lake Maranocook.

'Simeon G. Davis, his associates and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to construct, maintain and control a wharf extending into the waters of Lake Maranocook, in the town of Winthrop, not exceeding seventy-five feet, and to construct, maintain and control a boathouse over or in said waters of such dimensions as he or they shall deem proper, said wharf and boathouse, nor either of them, shall not be located within two hundred feet of the bridge across the outlet of said lake; provided, they shall first obtain the consent of the owners of the shores of the lake to which said wharf and boathouse are adjacent, or the consent of the municipal officers of said towns in case said wharf or boathouse are adjacent to any highway or town way.'

—must obtain consent of owners.

Approved March 21, 1901.
