Chapter 114.

An Act to amend Section six of Chapter three of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred ninety-nine entitled "An Act to amend Section six of Chapter one hundred fifty-six of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred ninety-five entitled 'An Act to amend Section six of Chapter thirty-five of the Revised Statutes,'" relating to Intelligence Offices.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 6 of chapter 3, public laws of 1899, amended.

Section 1. Section six of chapter three of the public laws of eighteen hundred ninety-nine is hereby amended by striking out in the second line thereof the words "one dollar each" and inserting in place thereof the words 'the sum of five dollars each into the town treasury;' and by striking out in the tenth line thereof the words, "in excess of one dollar;" and by inserting in the thirteenth line thereof after the word "furnished," the words 'No license shall be granted to a person who is directly or indirectly engaged or interested in the sale of intoxicating liquors,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Intelligence offices may be licensed by municipal officers.

'Section 6. The municipal officers of any town may on payment of the sum of five dollars each into the town treasury grant licenses to suitable persons for one year, unless sooner revoked after notice and for cause, to keep offices for the purposes of obtaining employment for domestics, servants, or other laborers, except seamen, or of giving information relating thereto, or of doing the usual business of intelligence offices; whoever keeps such an office, without a license, forfeits not exceeding fifty dollars for every day that it is so kept. The keeper of an intelligence office shall not retain any sum of money received from any person seeking employment through the agency of such intelligence office, unless employment of the kind sought for is actually furnished.

—penalty for keeping intelligence office without license.

—license shall not be granted to persons engaged in sale of intoxicants.

No license shall be granted to a person who is directly or indirectly engaged in or interested in the sale of intoxicating liquors. The keeper of a licensed intelligence office shall cause two copies of this act, printed in type of sufficient size to be legible and easily read, to be conspicuously posted in each room used or occupied for the purposes of such intelligence office. Whoever violates the provisions of this act shall have the license revoked, and shall be punished by fine not exceeding twenty dollars for each offense.'

—penalty for violation of this act.

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 18, 1903.

Chapter 115.

An Act in relation to Judges of Municipal Courts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

No judge of any municipal court shall give counsel or accept any retainer in relation to any cause, the subject matter of which shall be within the jurisdiction of the court over which he presides, nor in any manner become voluntarily interested, directly or indirectly, in any such cause.

Judge of municipal court shall not give counsel in cases within jurisdiction of his court.

Approved March 19, 1903.
