PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1903.

they may lay out a school house lot, not exceeding three acres, and appraise the damages therefor; and on payment or tender of such damages, or if such owner does not reside in the state, upon depositing such damages in the treasury of such town or district for his use, the town or district designating it may take such lot to be held and used for the purposes aforesaid; and when such school house has ceased to be thereon for two years, said lot reverts to the owner, his heirs or assigns. And any town or city may take real estate for the enlargement or extension of any location designated for the erection or removal of a school house and requisite buildings and play grounds, as herein provided; but no real estate shall be so taken within fifty feet of a dwelling house, and all school house lots and play grounds that require fencing shall be fenced by the town or city.'

—damages.

—no real estate shall be taken within 50 feet of a dwelling and lots shall be fenced by town or city.
