PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1903.

Chapter 150.

An Act additional to Chapter seventy-three of the Revised Statutes, relating to Titles to property.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. Chapter seventy-three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section, to wit:

Chapter 73, R. S., amended.

'Section 30. No agreement that a building erected with the consent of the land owner, by one not the owner of the land upon which it is erected, shall be and remain personal property, shall be effectual against any person, except the owner of such land, his heirs, devisees and persons having actual notice thereof, unless such agreement is in writing and signed by such land owner, or by some one duly authorized for that purpose, and acknowledged and recorded as deeds are required to be acknowledged and recorded under this chapter.'

Agreement that building shall be personal property when erected by one not owner of land, not effectual.

—exceptio ns.

Section 2. This act shall not apply to said agreements heretofore entered into and now outstanding.

Approved March 26, 1903.

Chapter 151.

An Act relating to Assaults upon Officers and hindering or obstructing them while in the discharge of their duties.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. Whoever assaults, intimidates, or in any manner wilfully obstructs, intimidates or hinders any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, constable or police officer while in the lawful discharge of his official duties, whether with or without process, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year.

Assaults upon or interference with officers, how punished.

Section 2. In offenses under this act, not of an aggravated nature, trial justices may try and punish by a fine of not more than twenty dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for sixty days and municipal or police courts may punish by a fine of not more than thirty dollars, or sixty days imprisonment.

Jurisdiction of trial justices.

—of municipal or police courts.

Approved March 26, 1903.
