Chapter 336.

An Act to extend and amend the charter of the Bluehill Trust and Banking Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Charter extended.

Section 1. The rights, powers and privileges of the Bluehill Trust and Banking Company, which were granted by chapter two hundred and seventy-two of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, and extended by chapter three hundred and ninety-one of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and further extended by chapter one hundred and thirty of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and further extended by chapter three hundred and fifty-six of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and one, are hereby extended for two years from the approval of this act; and the persons named in said act, their associates and successors, shall have all the rights, powers and privileges that were granted them by said act, to be exercised in the same manner and for the same purposes as specified in said act.

Section 4, chapter 272, private and special laws of 1895, amended.

Section 2. Section four of chapter two hundred and seventy-two of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five is hereby amended by striking out the word "fifty" in the second and seventh lines of said section and substituting therefor in each instance the word 'twenty-five,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Capital stock.

'The capital stock of said corporation shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, with the right to increase the said capital stock at any time by a vote of the shareholders to any amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars. Said corporation shall not commence business as a trust or banking company, until stock to the amount of at least twenty-five thousand dollars shall have been subscribed and paid in, in cash.'

--shall not commence business till $25,000 has been paid in.

CHAP. 337

Section 3. Section eight of chapter two hundred and seventy-two of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five is hereby amended by striking out the word "ten" in the third line and substituting therefor the word 'three,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows: 'No person shall be eligible to the position of a director or trustee of said corporation who is not the actual owner of three shares of the stock.'

Section 8, chapter 272, private and special laws of 1895, amended.

—director must own three shares of stock.

Section 4. This act shall take effect when approved.
