CHAP. 399

May issue bonds after stock is sold.

—proviso.

'Section 12. After Washington county shall have sold its preferred stock in accordance with the provisions of this act, the Washington County Railroad Company for the purposes hereafter named is hereby authorized to issue its bonds in such amount and with such rate of interest that the annual interest charge thereon shall not exceed the annual interest charge upon the present outstanding mortgage bonds, and to secure the same by a mortgage of its railroad, franchises, property and privileges; provided said mortgage shall be authorized by a majority vote of the holders of the common stock in said company at a legal meeting called therefor, in the call for which the purposes of said meeting shall be stated, and shall also be consented to in writing by the owner or owners of all of the preferred stock in said company. The proceeds of such last named mortgage bonds shall be applied to the payment, redemption or purchase of said first mortgage bonds, or to the purchase of the preferred stock, which when purchased may be retired and canceled. When all of said bonds shall have been so paid, redeemed or purchased and the first mortgage discharged, any balance remaining may be applied to the improvement or betterment of said road.'

Section 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 28, 1903.

Chapter 399.

An Act providing temporarily for the Payment of Wardens for their services.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Provision for payment of fish and game wardens.

Section 1. Until there shall be funds available to pay inland fish and game wardens for their services, the governor is authorized to draw his warrant for the payment of the same on the state treasurer from the amount appropriated for the operation of the fish hatcheries and feeding stations for fish and for the protection of fish, and such amount thus drawn shall be returned to said fund as soon as it is received for licenses or fines.

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 28, 1903.
