PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1905.

Chapter 9.

An Act to amend Section six of Chapter sixty-five of the Revised Statutes, relating to Probate Courts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 6,
chapter 65,
R. S., amended.

Section 1. Section six of chapter sixty-five of the revised statutes is hereby amended, so as to read as follows:

Probate judges may interchange duties in case of illness, etc.

'Section 6. During the sickness, absence from the state or inability of any judge of probate to hold the regular terms of his court, such terms, at his request or that of the register of the county, may be held by the judge of any other county; the judges may interchange services or perform each others' duties when they find it necessary or convenient, and in case of the death of a judge, all necessary terms of the probate court for the county, may, at the request of the register, be held by the judge of another county, until the vacancy is filled. The orders, decrees and decisions of the judge holding such terms, have the same force and validity as if made by the judge of the county in which such terms are held.'

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 14, 1905.

Chapter 10.

An Act to amend Section twenty-four of Chapter one hundred and forty-four of the Revised Statutes, relating to Insane Persons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 24,
chapter 144,
R. S., amended.

Section twenty-four of chapter one hundred and forty-four of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "therefor" in the eighth line of said section the following words:

'And the reasonable expenses incurred by said town relative to such insane person, shall be included in the amount to be so refunded by the state', so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

support of insane paupers, how paid.

'Section 24. Any town thus made chargeable in the first instance, and paying for the commitment and support of the insane at a hospital, may recover the amount paid, from the insane, if able, or from persons legally liable for his support, or from the town where his legal settlement is, as if incurred for the expense of a pauper, but if he has no legal settlement in the state, such expenses shall be refunded by the state, and the
