OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1905.

Chapter 21.

An Act to amend Section sixty-five of Chapter ten of the Revised Statutes, relating to the collection of Taxes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section sixty-five of chapter ten of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following: 'And no execution shall run against the body of any person issued on a judgment recovered for the collection of any poll tax,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 65, chapter 10,
R. S., amended.

'Section 65. In addition to other provisions for the collection of taxes legally assessed, the mayor and treasurer of any city, the selectmen of any town and the assessors of any plantation to which a tax is due may in writing direct an action of debt to be commenced in the name of such city or of the inhabitants of such town or plantation, against the party liable; but no such defendant is liable for any costs of suit, unless it appears by the declaration and by proof, that payment of said tax had been duly demanded before suit. And no execution shall run against the body of any person issued on a judgment recovered for the collection of any poll tax.'

Action of debt may be commenced
against party
liable for taxes.

-demand
must be made before
suit.
