Chapter 37.

An Act to amend Section twenty-five of Chapter one hundred and fourteen of the Revised Statutes, relating to the relief of Poor Debtors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section twenty-five of chapter one hundred and fourteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: 'Should the owner of said judgment or his attorney neglect to have the original petition and subpoena before said magistrate at the time therein designated for said disclosure, upon prayer therefor said magistrate shall issue an execution against said judgment owner in favor of said debtor for his travel at six cents per mile and attendance at one dollar and fifty cents, if he actually attends at said time and place, and said debtor shall not thereafter be compelled to disclose on said judgment until said execution has been satisfied,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 25,
chapter 114, R.
S., amended.

'Section 25. At such time and place, the debtor shall appear and submit himself to examination on oath concerning his estate and effects, their disposal and his ability to pay the judgment. Should the owner of said judgment or his attorney neglect to have the original petition and subpoena before said magistrate at the time therein designated for said disclosure, upon prayer therefor, said magistrate shall issue an execution against said judgment owner in favor of said debtor for his travel at six cents per mile and attendance at one dollar and fifty cents, if he actually attends at said time and place, and said debtor shall not thereafter be compelled to disclose on said judgment until said execution has been satisfied.'
