PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1905.

---

CHAP. 101

Penalty for injury to transit points, or any other monument or mark of railroad.

'Whoever wilfully or maliciously disturbs, removes or destroys any transit point, reference point, stake, plug, hub, guard stake, bench mark, or other monument of any railroad location or survey, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days; and in addition shall be liable in an action of debt for the amount of damage done.'

Approved March 21, 1905.

Chapter 101.

An Act to amend Section three of Chapter twenty of the Revised Statutes, relating to Burying Grounds.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 3, chapter 20, R. S., amended.

Section three of chapter twenty of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "society" in the first line thereof the words 'and any individuals, association or corporation,' and also by inserting after the word "society" in the last line of said section the words 'or by such individuals, association or corporation,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Penalty for neglect to fence ancient or public burying grounds.

'Section 3. Each town, parish, religious society and any individuals, association or corporation, to which any ancient or public burying ground belongs, shall keep a substantial fence around it in good repair; and for neglect shall forfeit not exceeding one hundred dollars to be applied as prescribed in the preceding section by such officers of such town, or the officers or committee of such parish or society, or by such individuals, association or corporation.'

Approved March 21, 1905.
