of the guard rail those who enter and leave each compartment. The number of such voting shelves and compartments shall not be less than one for every one hundred voters qualified to vote at such polling place, and not less than three in any town, and not less than five in any ward of a city. No persons other than the election officers, election clerks and voters admitted as hereinafter provided, shall be permitted within said rail, except by authority of the presiding election officer or officers for the purpose of keeping order and enforcing the law. Each voting shelf and compartment shall be kept provided with proper supplies and conveniences for marking the ballots.'

—number of compartments.

Section 2. This act shall take effect only in such towns and cities as by a majority vote of the legal voters so voting in such town or city shall adopt it.

This act shall take effect when adopted by vote of town or city.

Approved March 24, 1905.

Chapter 149.

An Act to amend Sections one hundred and sixteen and one hundred and seventeen of Chapter six of the Revised Statutes, relating to caucuses in cities of over thirty-five thousand inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. Section one hundred and sixteen of chapter six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting the words 'the city committees may in their discretion determine in their call for a caucus or convention the persons who are entitled to participate in said caucus or convention' before the word "when-ever" in the first line of said section.

Section 116, chapter 6, R. S., amended.

Section 2. Section one hundred and seventeen of chapter six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "twenty-five" and inserting instead thereof the words 'thirty-five,' so that said section, as amended, shall read, "The provisions of the four preceding sections shall be applicable only to cities of more than thirty-five thousand inhabitants."

Section 117, chapter 6, R. S., amended.

Section 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 24, 1905.
