PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1905.

the provisions of this act, any such person or corporation or said Farmington Village Corporation may, within twelve months after the filing of said notices, plans and descriptions, apply to the commissioners of the county of Franklin, who shall cause such damages to be assessed in the same manner and under the same restrictions, conditions, limitations and rights of appeal as are by law prescribed in the case of damages in the laying out of highways, so far as such law is consistent with the provisions of this act.

Section 6. The Farmington Village Corporation is hereby vested with the authority to raise such sum or sums of money as are necessary for the payment of all extensions, additions and improvements acquired by said Farmington Village Corporation by virtue of this act, and is hereby authorized to increase its bonded indebtedness by issuing additional bonds, secured by a second mortgage on its existing property, together with a first mortgage of what property it may acquire by virtue of this act.

May raise money.

-may increase its bonded indebtedness.

Section 7. The rights granted under this act to the Farmington Village Corporation shall be so exercised as not to interfere with the rights of the Wilton Water Company, to take water from said pond for the purpose of conveying to and supplying the town of Wilton and the villages of North Jay and Bean's Corner in the town of Jay, with pure water sufficient for all municipal, public and domestic purposes, including a sufficient quantity for extinguishing fires, supplying hotels, livery stables, laundries, for sprinkling streets, for running elevators and for motors, providing that such motors shall not be used for manufacturing purposes.

Rights hereby conferred shall not interfere with rights of Wilton Water Company.

Section 8. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 17, 1905.

Chapter 234.

An Act to incorporate the Hastings Brook Improvement Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. F. M. Simpson, C. E. Oak, and Fred W. Scott, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a corporation by the name of the Hastings Brook Improvement Company, with all the rights, powers and privileges of similar corporations.

called, in Merrill plantation and township seven, range four, and township seven, range five, in Aroostook county; and may construct and maintain necessary side dams, booms, abutments and other necessary appliances in said stream, remove the rocks therefrom, widen, deepen and otherwise improve the same for the purpose of facilitating the driving of logs and other lumber thereon; and for the above purpose said company may take necessary land and materials for building such dams and making such improvements and locating the same, and the damages for land and materials so taken, if not agreed upon by the parties interested, shall be ascertained and determined by the county commissioners of the county where the land so taken is situate or the materials used are found, in the same manner and under the same conditions and limitations as are provided by law in case of damages occasioned by laying out highways, and the amount of damages so determined shall be paid by said company.

Section 3. Said company may demand and receive a toll of thirty cents per thousand on all logs and lumber which may pass through or over said dams and improvements, or any portion thereof, excepting such as may be cut from the northwest quarter of township six, range four, Merrill plantation, on which the toll shall be sixteen and one-half cents per thousand feet, and said company shall have a lien on all logs and lumber which may pass through or over any of its dams or improvements for the payment of said tolls and the costs and charges for enforcing same, which shall continue for thirty days after such logs and lumber, or a major part thereof, shall have arrived at their destination and after demand of payment made upon the owner or person in charge thereof. Said lien may be enforced by attachment in the same manner as the general lien upon logs and lumber provided in chapter ninety-three, revised statutes. The logs of each particular mark shall be holden only for the tolls of such mark.

Section 4. When said company shall have received from tolls its outlay already made and to be made on said brook for all dams, side dams, sluices, booms, abutments and other improvements, and for the repairs made upon the same up to that time, and six per cent interest thereon, then the tolls herein provided shall be fixed at a sufficient amount to keep said dams and other improvements in repair.

Section 5. Should the said Hastings Brook Improvement Company, its successors and assigns for the full period of two consecutive years fail to occupy, use and control said dams, sluices and other improvements authorized by this act, and shall abandon same during such period, then this charter and the rights under same shall cease and determine.

Section 6. The first meeting of said company shall be called at Bangor, Maine, by a notice signed by any one of the corporators named in section one, setting forth the time, place and purpose of the meeting, and such notice shall be mailed to each of the other corporators, postage paid, seven days at least before the day of such meeting.

Notice of first meeting, how given.

Section 7. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 17, 1905.
