PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1905.

---

and shall thoroughly inspect and examine all the affairs of said corporation, and make such inquiries as may be necessary to ascertain its condition and ability to fulfill all its engagements. If upon examination of said corporation the examiner is of the opinion that its investments are not in accordance with law, or said corporation is insolvent, or its condition is such as to render its further proceedings hazardous to the public or to those having funds in its custody, or is of the opinion that it has exceeded its powers or failed to comply with any of the rules or restrictions provided by law, he shall have such authority and take such action as is provided for in the case of savings banks by chapter forty-eight of the revised statutes. He shall preserve in a permanent form a full record of his proceedings, including a statement of the condition of said corporation. A copy of such statement shall be published by said corporation immediately after the annual examination of the same in some newspaper published where said corporation is established. If no paper is published in the town where said corporation is established, then it shall be published in a newspaper printed in the nearest city or town. The necessary expenses of the bank examiner while making such examination shall be paid by the corporation.

Section 16. Any five of the incorporators named in this act may call the first meeting of the corporation by mailing a written notice, signed by all, postage paid, to each of the other incorporators, seven days at least before the day of the meeting, naming the time, place and purpose of such meeting, and at such meeting the necessary officers may be chosen, by-laws adopted, and any other corporate business transacted.

Notice of first meeting, how given.

Section 17. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 17, 1905.

Chapter 248.

An Act to amend that portion of Section three of Chapter four hundred and seven of the Private and Special Laws of nineteen hundred and three, relating to the time and number of fish that can be taken in the streams lying wholly or partly in the towns of Freeman and Salem.

Be it enacted in the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

So much of section three of chapter four hundred and seven of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and three as prohibits fishing, other than as provided in the general laws of the state, in the streams lying wholly or partly in the towns of Freeman and Salem, is hereby repealed.

Fishing regulated in streams in towns of Freeman and Salem.

Approved March 17, 1905.
