other conditions detrimental to children and if in his judgment he finds detrimental conditions to exist, he may, in conjunction with the municipal officers of the town or city of which the complaint is made, prohibit the employment of children therein until such conditions are removed.

Section 6. This act shall take effect September first, nineteen hundred and seven.

Approved March 6, 1907.

Chapter 47.

An Act to provide an additional term of the Supreme Judicial Court for the County of Oxford.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. From and after April first, nineteen hundred and seven there shall be three terms of the supreme judicial court held within and for the county of Oxford instead of two terms as now provided by law.

Terms of S. J. court in Oxford county.

The additional term shall be held at Rumford Falls in the town of Rumford on the second Tuesday of May annually.

Section 2. The county commissioners of Oxford county are hereby authorized and directed to at once make necessary provisions to care for the additional term herein provided; also pay to the clerk of courts such sum as is reasonable for extra expense incurred by him by reason of said May term.

County commissioners to make provisions for additional term.

Section 3. Said May term shall be held without a grand jury unless specially ordered by any judge of said court. All recognizances and other criminal processes made returnable to and to have day in said May term when no criminal business is transacted shall be continued to and have day in the next term of said court held in said county.

May term held without grand jury.

Section 4. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 9, 1907.
