PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1907.

Chapter 73.

An Act to amend Section sixty-three of Chapter fifteen of the Revised Statutes, relating to tuition in High Schools.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section sixty-three of chapter fifteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "aforesaid" in the eleventh line the words 'and said tuition so paid shall be made a part of the high school fund of the town receiving the same,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 63,
chapter 15,
R. S., amended.

'Section 63. Any youth who resides with a parent or guardian in any town which does not support and maintain a free high school giving at least one four years' course properly equipped and teaching such subjects as are taught in secondary schools of standard grade in this state may, when he shall be prepared to pursue such four years' course, attend any school in the state which does have such a four years' course and to which he may gain entrance by permission of those having charge thereof, provided said youth shall attend a school or schools of standard grade which are approved by the state superintendent of public schools. In such case the tuition of such youth, not to exceed thirty dollars annually for any one youth, shall be paid by the town in which he resides as aforesaid, and said tuition so paid shall be made a part of the high school fund of the town receiving the same; and towns shall raise annually, as other school moneys are raised, a sum sufficient to pay such tuition charges.'
