PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1907.

Chapter 92.

An Act to amend Section thirty of Chapter fifty-one of the Revised Statutes, as amended by Chapter one hundred twenty-seven of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred and five, relating to Railroad Branch Tracks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. Section thirty of chapter fifty-one of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter one hundred and twenty-seven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and five, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word "pits" in the fifth line of said section as amended, the words 'log landing or yard' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 30, chapter 51, R. S., as amended by chapter 127, public laws 1905, further amended.

'Section 30. Any railroad corporation, under the direction of the railroad commissioners, may locate, construct and maintain branch railroad tracks to any railroad station of another corporation or to connect with another railroad or to any mills, mines, quarries, gravel pits, log landing or yard, or manufacturing establishments erected in any town or township, through which the main line of said railroad is constructed, but not within any city without the consent of the city council and for that purpose said corporation shall have all the powers and rights granted and be subject to all the duties imposed upon it by its charter.'

Railroad companies may build branch tracks to mills, mines, quarries, etc.

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 20, 1907.

Chapter 93.
