from the town where his legal settlement is, as if incurred for the expense of a pauper, but if he has no legal settlement in the state, such expenses shall be refunded by the state, and the governor and council shall audit all such claims and draw their warrant on the treasurer therefor. All bills for expenses so incurred and chargeable to the state, shall be filed with the governor and council within three months after the same are contracted, and no such bills shall be allowed unless they are filed with the governor and council within sixty days after the thirty-first day of December of the year in which they are incurred. No insane person shall suffer any of the disabilities of pauperism nor be deemed a pauper, by reason of such support. But the time during which the insane person is so supported shall not be included in the period of residence necessary to change his settlement.'

—bills chargeable to the state shall be filed with governor and council.

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 22, 1907.

Chapter 106.

An Act to amend Section forty-one of Chapter twenty-three of the Revised Statutes, relating to the Powers, Liabilities and Penalties of Plantations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section forty-one of chapter twenty-three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "required to assess a state and county tax" in the first line of said section and inserting in place thereof the words 'organized under section one hundred and fourteen of chapter four of the revised statutes,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 41, chapter 23, R. S., amended.

'Section 41. Plantations organized under section one hundred and fourteen of chapter four of the revised statutes have like powers and are subject to like liabilities and penalties as towns respecting ways. Their assessors have like powers and shall perform like duties, as municipal officers of towns, respecting them.'

Plantations liable as towns and have same powers.

Approved March 22, 1907.
