PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1907.

CHAP. 114Chapter 114.

An Act in relation to sessions of the Law Court.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 43,
chapter 79,
R. S., amended.

Section forty-three of chapter seventy-nine of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all the words thereof after the word "year" at the beginning of the fifth line of the section and inserting in the place thereof the words 'meetings of the justices shall also be held at such times and places as the chief justice shall appoint for the consideration and determination of all cases and questions before submitted and undetermined. Such meetings shall be held at least twice in each year. Each justice shall be reimbursed by the state for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in attending such meetings and the sessions of the law court upon presentation to the governor and council of a detailed statement of such expenses.' So that said section forty-three, as thus amended, shall read as follows:

Sessions of law court.

'Section 43. For the purposes of the law court the state shall constitute one district. The sessions of the court as a law court shall be holden at Augusta on the second Tuesday of December, at Bangor on the first Tuesday of June and at Portland on the fourth Tuesday of June in each year. Meetings of the justices shall also be held at such times and places as the chief justice shall appoint for the consideration and determination of all cases and questions before submitted and undetermined. Such meetings shall be held at least twice in each year. Each justice shall be reimbursed by the state for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in attending such meetings and the sessions of the law court upon presentation to the governor and council of a detailed statement of such expenses.'

—reimbursed for expenses.

Approved March 26, 1907.

Chapter 115.

An Act in regard to the right of the peremptory challenge of Jurors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Challenge of jurors.

Section 1. The right to challenge peremptorily any person called or returned to serve as a juror may be exercised after it has been determined that the person so called or returned stands indifferent.

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 26, 1907.
