PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1907.

CHAP. 35

Chapter 35.

An Act to amend Chapter two hundred and forty-two of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An Act to incorporate the city of South Portland," as amended by Chapter one hundred thirty-eight of the Private and Special Laws of nineteen hundred and five.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Item 2, section 23, chapter 242, private and special laws, 1895, as amended by chapter 138, private and special laws, 1905, amended.

Item two of section twenty-three of chapter two hundred and forty-two of private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, as amended by chapter one hundred thirty-eight of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and five, is hereby further amended, so that the same shall read as follows:

Exclusive original jurisdiction of court.

'Item 2. Said court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all offenses against the ordinances and by-laws of said city, and of the local board of health therein, and concurrent jurisdiction of all such criminal offenses and misdemeanors committed therein as are cognizable by trial justices, and concurrent jurisdiction of all civil actions in the county of Cumberland wherein the debt or damages demanded do not exceed twenty dollars, except when the judge of said court is interested in any such action as party or attorney; and original jurisdiction concurrent with the superior court of the county of Cumberland in all civil actions wherein the debt or damages do not exceed fifty dollars, exclusive of costs, in which any party to the action or person summoned as trustee shall reside, or, if not an inhabitant of the state, shall be commorant or have a place of business, in said city.'

—original concurrent jurisdiction.

Approved February 13, 1907.

Chapter 36.

An Act to extend the charter of the Phillips Trust Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Charter extended.

The rights, powers and privileges of the Phillips Trust Company, which were granted by chapter three hundred and twenty-three of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and three and extended by chapter eighty-five of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and five, are hereby extended for two years from the approval of this act; and the persons named in said act, their associates and successors, shall have all the rights, powers and privileges that were granted them by said act, to be exercised in the same manner and for the same purposes as therein specified.

Approved February 13, 1907.
