OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1907.

Chapter 62.

An Act to authorize the Southwest Harbor Water Company to buy, generate, sell and distribute electricity.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Southwest Harbor Water Co., authorized to generate and sell electricity.

Section 1. The Southwest Harbor Water Company is hereby specially authorized and empowered to buy, make, generate and use electricity upon its property in the town of Southwest Harbor, county of Hancock and state of Maine, or other property hereafter acquired by said Southwest Harbor Water Company for the purpose; and to transmit, conduct and distribute such electricity to, into and throughout the town and village of Southwest Harbor, and sell and supply the same for lighting the public streets and any other streets, and such buildings and places therein, public and private, as may be agreed upon by said company and the owners or those having control of such streets and places to be lighted, and may transmit, buy, sell and supply the same for heating, motive power, manufacturing or mechanical purposes in said town.

May erect and operate works.

Section 2. Said company is hereby authorized and empowered to build, erect and operate manufactories and works, for making, generating, distributing and supplying electricity upon said property, to use the same therein, and to erect, lay down, contract, maintain and operate lines of wires or other material for the transmission of electricity under, over and across any stream or arm of the sea, and under, along, upon and over the streets, ways and bridges in said Southwest Harbor.

Company shall be subject to the general laws.

Section 3. In erecting poles and lines of wires along, upon and over streets, ways and bridges, and in constructing and laying lines of wires and conduits under any stream or arm of the sea, street or highway, said company shall be subject to the general laws of the state applicable to corporations which are authorized to make, generate, sell, distribute and supply electricity for power, lighting, heating, manufacturing and other purposes and shall have all the rights and powers of such corporations.

May hold real estate not to exceed $10,000.

Section 4. Said company or corporation may lease, purchase, acquire and hold real estate, necessary and convenient for the purposes aforesaid, to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars, may sell and convey the same, and may issue, negotiate, and sell bonds to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars for the purposes stated in this act.

Section 5. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 13, 1907.
