Chapter 192.

An Act to extend the powers and rights of the Brunswick Electric Light and Power Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Organization made valid.

Section 1. The organization under the general law of the Brunswick Electric Light and Power Company, and all acts of said company thereunder, are hereby ratified, confirmed and made valid.

Authorized to furnish electricity within certain counties.

Section 2. Said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered, subject otherwise to the general law relating thereto, to manufacture, transmit, distribute and furnish electricity for light, heat and power, within the counties of Cumberland, Sagadahoc and Androscoggin, and to erect and maintain pole lines, power stations, machinery and other necessary equipment therein; and to sell and supply electricity for any of said purposes to any railroad or street railroad, person or corporation, or to any town, city or district within said territory, which said railroads, street railroads, persons, corporations, towns, cities and districts are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to contract with said corporation therefor. Provided, however, that, excepting the right to transmit electricity by trunk lines through any part of said territory to any other part thereof in which it legally may have or acquire the right to distribute and sell the same, and excepting the right to sell and distribute electricity in Cumberland county for power purposes only, nothing herein contained shall authorize said corporation to engage in business in any part of said territory in competition with any other corporation legally doing, or authorized to do, a similar business therein, without the consent of such other corporation.

—to supply electricity to railroads, etc.

—proviso.

May combine with other companies.

Section 3. Said corporation and any other corporation organized for similar purposes and doing business in said territory are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to combine their properties, rights, privileges and franchises, by sale or lease, or otherwise not contrary to law, and the company so purchasing or otherwise acquiring the plant, property, busi-
