Chapter 233.

An Act to amend the charter of the Waldo Trust Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. Section six of chapter five hundred of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred one is hereby amended by striking out the whole of said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6,
chapter 500,
private and
special laws, 1901,
amended.

'Section 6. All the corporation powers of this corporation shall be exercised by a board of not less than five directors, two-thirds of whom shall be residents of this state, whose number and term of office shall be determined by a vote of the stockholders at the first meeting held by the incorporators and at each annual meeting thereafter. The affairs and powers of the corporation may, at the option of the stockholders, be entrusted to an executive board of not less than five members, two-thirds of whom shall be residents of this state, to be, by vote of the stockholders, elected from the full board of directors. The directors of said corporation shall be sworn to the proper discharge of their duties, and they shall hold office until others are elected and qualified in their stead. If a director dies, resigns, or becomes disqualified for any cause, the remaining directors may elect a person to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting of the corporation. The oath of office of any director shall be taken within thirty days of his election, or his office shall become vacant. The clerk of such corporation shall, within ten days, notify such directors of their election and within thirty days shall publish the list of all persons who have taken the oath of office as directors. The removal of any director from this state shall immediately vacate his office, if such removal leaves less than two-thirds of the membership resident in the state.'

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 13, 1907.

Chapter 234.

An Act relating to improvements on Stratton Brook in the township of Wyman in the County of Franklin.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Albion L. Savage, authorized to maintain dams in Stratton brook.

Section 1. Albion L. Savage, of Stratton in the county of Franklin and state of Maine, his associates, successors and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, erect and maintain in Stratton brook on land now owned by the Coburn heirs and others, in the south half of township four, range three, Bingham's Kennebec Purchase west of Kennebec river, otherwise known as Wyman in the county of Franklin and state of Maine, anywhere on said brook between and including the Hall dam, so called, and the east line of said township, such dams as may be necessary, including the three dams already erected and maintained by him, to raise a head of water to facilitate the driving of logs, pulp wood and other lumber, down said stream; and to build side dams, piers, rack booms, remove rocks, and make other improvements on said Stratton brook and its tributaries within the limits of the said township, for the purpose of facilitating the driving of logs, pulp wood and other lumber down the same.

—side dams, piers, etc.

May take and flow lands.

Section 2. Said Albion L. Savage, his associates, successors and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to take lands and materials necessary to build and maintain such dams and booms and make such improvements, and may flow contiguous lands, so far as necessary to raise suitable heads of water, to attach his booms and piers to lands adjacent to said stream, and may with his agents, servants and teams, pass and repass over and along the shores of said brook, and to and from the same, over the land of other persons, for the purposes aforesaid, and for managing said dams, piers and booms, making compensation therefor as is provided in case of damage for lands taken in laying out highways.

—may pass and repass over lands of others.
