Chapter 276.

An Act for the better protection of shell fish within the town of Yarmouth in the County of Cumberland.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Towns of Yarmouth and North Yarmouth may regulate taking of shell fish within their limits.

Section 1. No shell fish shall be taken from any flats within the limits of the town of Yarmouth, in Cumberland county, except by written permit of the municipal officers of the said towns of Yarmouth and North Yarmouth, and payment to the said towns for the privilege at such price as said towns may establish at any town meeting, any existing laws to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that without such permit, any inhabitant within said towns, or any person temporarily resident therein, or the riparian owner of such flats, may take therefrom for the immediate use of himself or his family, not exceeding one bushel at one tide. Nor shall the inhabitants of said towns of Yarmouth or North Yarmouth enjoy any privileges on the flats of the town of Cumberland.

—residents or owners may take not exceeding one bushel at one tide.

Penalty for violation of this act.

Section 2. Any person taking shell fish contrary to the provisions of this act, shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding ten dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days or by both.

Section 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 18, 1907.
