PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1907.

Chapter 328.

An Act to incorporate Doctor King's Hospital.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. Alfred King, Nellie T. King, Frances O. King, their associates and successors, are hereby incorporated and made a body politic, by the name of Doctor King's Hospital, and by that name may sue and be sued and may have a common seal and shall have all the immunities and privileges and be subject to all the liabilities of like corporations.

Corporators.

—corporate name.

Section 2. Said corporation may take, receive, purchase, hold and possess land and tenements in fee simple or otherwise and dispose of and sell the same and may erect, support and maintain a hospital for the treatment of the sick, for the training of nurses and for the advancement of the science of medicine, to be located within the city of Portland.

May take and hold lands, etc.

Section 3. The governor of the state, the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives for the time being, and such person or persons as the governor may appoint shall be a board of visitors of said hospital with authority to visit the same as often as they may think proper, to inspect the establishment and the actual condition of the sick, to examine the by-laws and regulations of the corporation and generally to see that the design of the institution is carried into effect.

Board of visitors.

Section 4. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 20, 1907.

Chapter 329.

An Act to amend "An Act to enlarge the powers of the Carrabassett Stock Farms."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. Section seven of chapter two hundred eighteen of the private and special laws of one thousand nine hundred and three is hereby amended by striking out all words after the word "corporation" in the first line of said section, and inserting in place thereof the following; 'may hold such real and personal estate as may be necessary and convenient for any or all of its purposes' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 7, chapter 218, private and special laws 1903, amended.

'Section 7. Said corporation may hold such real and personal estate as may be necessary and convenient for any or all its purposes.'

May hold real and personal estate.

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 20, 1907.
