CHAP. 335

—assessments shall constitute lien.

—shall be
certified by mayor and
aldermen.

—persons
aggrieved
may appeal
to court.

and charges on account of the same shall constitute a lien on the real estate so assessed for two years after they are laid. They shall be certified by the mayor and aldermen under their hands to the treasurer and collector of said city and his successors, with directions to collect the same according to law and may, together with all incidental costs and expenses and interest thereon at six per cent from the date of demand for payment thereof, be levied by sale of the estate by him or them if the assessment is not paid within three months after a written demand of payment made by him or them either upon the persons assessed or upon any person occupying the estate, such sale to be conducted in like manner as sale for non-payment of taxes on land of resident owners and with a similar right of redemption. Any person who may deem himself aggrieved by any such assessment may appeal to the supreme court in the same manner as is provided for appeals for damages for laying out streets and ways, which court shall at the first term appoint three persons who may be inhabitants of said city to settle and assess the share to be charged to such appellant; they shall make a return of their doings to said court and their decision, if accepted, shall be final. And in case the assessment made by the mayor and aldermen shall not be reduced on such appeal, the city shall recover costs, but otherwise pay costs.

Approved March 21, 1907.
