Chapter 407.

An Act to amend the law relating to Political Caucuses in the City of Bangor.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 3,
chapter 497,
private and
special laws
amended.

Section 1. Section three of chapter four hundred ninety-seven of the private and special laws of the year nineteen hundred one, is hereby amended by striking out of said section all words after the word "voters" in the twenty-third line of said section, and substituting therefor the words: 'And thereafter said board of registration shall from time to time add to said list all names which have been added to the list of voters, with the party designation, if any, and shall take from said list all names which have been stricken from the list of voters.'

Said section is also hereby amended by changing "tenth" in the third line to 'fifteenth,' and by changing the word "first" in the eighth line to 'tenth,' and by changing the word "first" in the thirteenth line to 'tenth,' and by changing the word "first" in the twentieth line to 'tenth,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Board shall give notice
to each person of such designation
and that the names will be placed on copies of voting lists.

'Section 3. The board of registration in said Bangor, as soon as may be after the receipt of such assessors' list, and before the fifteenth day of July in each year, shall give notice by mail, of such designation to every person against whose name the same appears, with notice that the same will be placed upon the certified copies of the voting lists to be used in caucuses as herein-after provided, unless he requests some other party designation in person or by writing, on or before the tenth day of August next. Said board shall at the same time so notify every person having no party designation upon the assessors' lists of the fact of such omission and that his name will bear no party designation upon the voting lists unless he requests said board, in person or by writing on or before the tenth day of August next, to make such designation. In case of additions to and corrections in the original assessors' list, such notices shall be issued immediately upon receipt thereof by the said board. Said board of registration shall be in public session from nine in the forenoon to one o'clock in the afternoon, and from three to five
