not having a seal, a certificate under seal from the secretary of state, or clerk of a court of record in the county where the officer resides or took the acknowledgment, authenticating the authority of the officer taking such acknowledgment, and the genuineness of his signature must be annexed thereto,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Section 20. Deeds shall be acknowledged by the grantors, or one of them, or by their attorney executing the same, before a justice of the peace, or notary public having a seal, or women otherwise eligible under the constitution and appointed for the purpose by the governor with the advice and consent of the council in the state; or any clerk of a court of record having a seal, notary public, justice of the peace, or commissioner appointed by the governor of Maine for the purpose, within the United States; or before a minister or consul of the United States or notary public in any foreign country. The seal of such court or the official seal of such notary if he have one, shall be affixed to the certificate of acknowledgment, but if such acknowledgment is taken outside the state of Maine before a justice of the peace, or notary public not having a seal, a certificate under seal from the secretary of state, or clerk of a court of record in the county where the officer resides or took the acknowledgment, authenticating the authority of the officer taking such acknowledgment, and the genuineness of his signature, must be annexed thereto.'

Deeds, before whom to be acknowledged.

Approved March 3, 1909.

Chapter 42.

An Act to amend Section thirteen of Chapter thirty-two of the Revised Statutes, as amended by Chapter seventy-five of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred and five, relating to the snaring of Rabbits.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

The last sentence of section thirteen of chapter thirty-two of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter seventy-five of the public laws of nineteen hundred and five, is hereby amended by striking out the first nine words of said section, being the words "this section shall not apply to Hancock county, and" so that said sentence, as amended, shall read as follows:

'In Oxford, Penobscot and Piscataquis counties it may and shall be lawful to catch wild hares or rabbits in box traps.'

Section 13, chapter 32, R. S., as amended by chapter 75, public laws 1905, further amended.

Approved March 3, 1909.
