jurisdiction.

Section 2. Municipal and police courts and trial justices within their counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme and superior courts in all prosecutions arising under this act.

Approved March 11, 1909.

Chapter 52.

An Act authorizing the Governor to issue his proclamation to Prevent the Use of Firearms in the Forests during a dangerously dry time.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Governor
may suspend open season for hunting.

Section 1. Whenever, during an open season for the hunting of any kind of game or game birds in this state, it shall appear to the governor that by reason of drought having in possession firearms in the forests is liable to cause forest fires, he may, by proclamation suspend the open season and make it a close season for such time as he may designate.

All laws relating to close season
shall be in force during suspended season.

Section 2. During the time which shall by such proclamation be made a close season, all provisions of law covering and relating to the close season shall be in force, and a person violating a provision of the same shall be subject to the penalty therein prescribed. In case any person shall enter upon the wild lands of the state carrying or having in their possession any firearms, or any person shall shoot during the close season fixed by proclamation of the governor, as provided in the preceding section, any wild animal or bird for the hunting of which there is no close season otherwise provided by law, he shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars and costs.

—penalty

Proclamation shall be published
and posted.

—copy filed
with secretary of state.

Section 3. Such proclamation shall be published in such newspapers of the state and posted in such places and in such manner as the governor may order in writing. A copy of such proclamation and order, shall be filed with the secretary of state. A like attested copy shall be furnished to the forest commissioner, who shall attend to the posting and publication of the proclamation. All expense thereof and all the expense of enforcing the provisions of the proclamation shall be paid by said commissioner, after allowance by the state auditor, from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

—forest commissioner shall publish and post proclamations.

Section 4. If after the issuing of the proclamation as provided in section one, by reason of rains or otherwise, the governor is satisfied that the occasion has passed for the issuance of the proclamation, he may annul it by another proclamation issued as provided in this act for the issuance of the first proclamation.

When proclamation may be annulled.

Approved March 11, 1909.

Chapter 53.

An Act to amend Section thirty-seven, of Chapter eighty-one of the Revised Statutes, relating to the removal of unworthy Attorneys.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section thirty-seven of chapter eighty-one of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the words "committee of the bar," in the third line of said section, the words 'or bar association,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 37, chapter 81, R. S., amended.

'Section 37. Whenever an information is filed in the clerk's office of the supreme judicial court in any county, by the attorney general, or by a committee of the bar or bar association of such county, charging that an attorney at law has become and is disqualified for the office of attorney and counselor at law, for reasons specified in the information, any justice of said court, in term time or in vacation, may, in the name of the state, issue a rule requiring the attorney informed against, to appear on a day fixed, to show cause why his name should not be struck from the roll of attorneys, which rule, with an attested copy of the information, shall be served upon such attorney in such manner as the justice directs, at least fourteen days before the return day, and shall be made returnable, either in the county where such attorney resides or where it is charged that the misconduct was committed.'

Information may be filed by attorney general or committee of bar against any attorney.

—rule to show cause.
