funds now held, or which may be held by them, for the benefit of said school. Said funds shall be known by the names now attached thereto, or which may be attached by terms of gifts or bequests. The state treasurer shall semi-annually pay to the treasurer of said school a sum equal to two and one-half per cent of said amount, to be used for the benefit of said school in accordance with the several terms of gifts or bequests, or as the trustees shall from time to time determine.

Approved March 29, 1909.

Chapter 175.

An Act to facilitate the Identification of Criminals.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Identification of criminals
by Bertil-lon method.

Any officer, or the keeper of any prison, jail, lockup or other place of detention, having in custody any prisoner or person detained under suspicion, may, if deemed advisable, measure and describe, or cause such person to be measured or described, in accordance with the system, commonly known as the Bertillon method for the identification of criminals, and may cause to be taken such photographs as are deemed necessary, and may take copies of the finger prints of any such person.

Approved March 29, 1909.

Chapter 176.

An Act to repeal Section three of Chapter one hundred forty-three of the Revised Statutes, as amended by Section one of Chapter one hundred twenty of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred seven, relating to the State School for Boys.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 3,
chapter 143,
R. S., as amended
by section
1, chapter
120, public
laws, 1907,
repealed.

Section three of chapter one hundred forty-three of the revised statutes, as amended by section one of chapter one hundred twenty of the public laws of nineteen hundred seven, is hereby repealed.

Approved March 29, 1909.
