PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fourth
Legislature

1909

CHAP. 207

of this state, and shall be duly observed and obeyed by all officers and soldiers in said service.

Customs and usage of the U. S. army and navy.

Section 133. All matters relating to the organization, discipline and government of the national guard and naval militia, not otherwise provided for in this chapter or in the general regulations, shall be decided by the custom and usage of the United States army and navy respectively.

Laws repealed.

Section 134. Of the laws enumerated in the following schedule, those portions specified in the last column are repealed:

Acts of	Chapter	Sections
1893	266	all, and all amendments thereto;
1899	46	all, and all amendments thereto;
1901	159, 167, and 233	all, and all amendments thereto.

The repeal of the law or any part of a law specified in the foregoing schedule shall not revive any law or part of a law thereby repealed, nor shall such repeal affect any act done or offense committed, or penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred or accrued prior to the time when this act takes effect, but the same may be enforced, prosecuted and inflicted as fully as if such act had not been repealed, and all proceedings, commenced under or by virtue of any law so repealed, may be continued and prosecuted to final effect as fully as they might be under the laws then existing.

Name of chapter.

Section 135. This chapter shall be known as the military law.

Approved April 2, 1909.

Chapter 207.

An Act relating to Life Insurance Companies doing Industrial Business giving special rates of premium to members of Lodges and Labor Unions.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Special rates of insurance to members of lodges, labor unions, etc.

Any life insurance company doing business on the industrial plan in this state may issue policies of life or endowment insurance, with or without annuity, with special rates of premiums, less than the usual rates of premiums, for such policies, to members of labor unions, lodges, beneficial societies or similar organizations, or employees of a single employer who, through their secretary or other officer or employer, may take out insurance in an aggregate of not less than one hundred members and pay their premiums through such officer or employer.

Approved April 2, 1909.
