PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fourth
Legislature

1909

CHAP. 15

—may extend lines.

Municipal officers to locate streets, roads or ways to be occupied.

Special act not required.

chapter two hundred and forty-nine of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and five entitled, "An Act to authorize the Maine and New Brunswick Electrical Power Company, Limited, of New Brunswick, to exercise certain powers in this state," is hereby authorized to extend its lines from its main line in Bridgewater to the boundary line between Maine and the province of New Brunswick and to transmit electricity over and from said main line and said extension for use for light, heat and power in said town of Bridgewater and for the lines of said company in the province of New Brunswick under its charter.

Section 2. All locations upon streets, roads or ways, in said town of Bridgewater, necessary for the purposes of this act, are hereby granted, and the municipal officers of said town shall designate the streets, roads or ways so to be occupied, the places where the poles shall be set, and shall establish such reasonable restrictions as to the kind of poles, their construction and maintenance, the height of wires and the use of guard wires, as they deem proper.

Section 3. Nothing in this act shall require any corporation organized under the general laws of the state for the sale and distribution of electricity in said town of Bridgewater to obtain any special act of the legislature therefor.

Approved February 19, 1909.

Chapter 15.

An Act to provide for ice fishing in Round pond, in the town of Greenwood, Oxford county.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Fishing through ice permitted.

So much of section one of chapter four hundred and seven of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and three as prohibits fishing through the ice as provided in the general law of the state, in Round pond, in the town of Greenwood, Oxford county, from February first of each year until the ice is out of said pond the following spring, is hereby repealed.

Approved February 19, 1909.

Chapter 16.

An Act authorizing the Union Construction Company to hold stock and bonds of other corporations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

May hold stock and bonds of other corporations.

The Union Construction Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the state of Maine, which organization is hereby ratified, confirmed and declared to be legal and valid, is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, hold and dispose of shares of capital stock and mortgage bonds of other corporations.

Approved February 19, 1909.

Chapter 17.

An Act to amend Chapter three hundred and twenty-five of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled: "An Act to amend 'An Act establishing a Municipal Court in the Town of Waterville.'"

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Section three of chapter three hundred and twenty-five of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven is hereby amended by striking out the word "nine" in the sixth line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the word 'twelve,' so that said section three as amended shall read as follows:
