As Passed by the Seventy-fourth
Legislature

private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven are hereby extended for one year from the approval of this act, and the persons named in said act, their associates and successors shall have all the rights, powers and privileges that were granted them by the said act to be exercised in the same manner and for the same purposes as specified in said act; provided, however, that said company shall actually commence business as a trust company within said one year.

Approved February 24, 1909.

Chapter 41.

An Act to extend the Charter of the American Trust Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

The rights, powers and privileges of the American Trust Company which were granted by chapter twenty-seven of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven, are hereby extended for one year from the approval of this act, and the persons named in said chapter twenty-seven of said private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven, their associates, successors and assigns, shall have all the rights, powers and privileges that were granted them by said chapter twenty-seven of said private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven, to be exercised in the same manner and for the same purposes as therein specified; provided, however, that said company shall actually commence business as a trust company within said one year.

Charter extended.

Approved February 24, 1909.

Chapter 42.

An Act to authorize the construction of a Weir in tide waters of the Saint Croix River in the town of Robbinston.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Howard F. Fisher of Robbinston in the county of Washington, is hereby authorized to build and maintain a weir for fishing purposes in tide waters in front of land of Esther Vose of said Robbinston; providing that the owner of said land shall assent thereto and that said weir does not interfere with navigation or the rights of shore owners.

Weir authorized in St. Croix river.

Section 2. The above mentioned weir shall be located at least one thousand feet from the body of any weir now located in said waters.

Location of weir.

Approved February 24, 1909.
