rights of appeal shall be had in the same manner and under the same conditions, restrictions and limitations as are by law provided in cases of land taken for the location of railroads.

Section 7. Said corporation shall hold real and personal estate necessary and convenient for the purpose of its incorporation.

Section 8. The capital stock of said corporation shall be five thousand dollars divided into shares of ten dollars each.

Section 9. The first meeting of said corporation may be called by written notice served by any one of the incorporators at least seven days before the day of said meeting.

Section 10. Whosoever shall knowingly or maliciously corrupt the water supply of said corporation, or in any way render such water impure, or whoever may wilfully or maliciously injure any property of said corporation, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, and shall be liable to said corporation for three times the actual damage to be recovered in any proper action.

Section 11. This act shall become null and void in two years from the time when the same takes effect, unless the corporation shall have been organized and commenced the construction of its works under this charter.

Approved March 5, 1909.

Chapter 92.

An Act to extend the charter of the Bethel Trust Company. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

The rights, powers and privileges of the Bethel Trust Company, located at Bethel, Oxford county, Maine, which were granted by chapter sixty of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and five and extended for two years by chapter thirty-four of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven, are hereby further extended for one year from the approval of this act; and the persons named in said act, their associates and successors shall have all the rights and privileges that were granted them by said act, to be exercised in the same manner and for the same purposes as specified therein; provided, however, that said company shall actually commence business as a trust company within said one year.
