Section 1,
chapter 455,
special
laws, 1897,
amended.

Section one of chapter four hundred and fifty-five of the private and special laws of the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven is hereby amended by striking out the words "five" in the sixth line thereof and inserting the word 'twelve' in place thereof, so that said section shall read as follows:

May hold
property
not exceeding
$1,200,000.

'Section 1. The Good Will Home Association, a charitable corporation formed under the provisions of chapter fifty-five of the revised statutes for the purpose of aiding needy boys, and located at East Fairfield in Somerset County, is hereby authorized to take and hold by purchase, gift, devise or bequest, personal or real estate, in all not exceeding twelve hundred thousand dollars owned at any one time.'

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 20,
chapter 436,
special laws,
1907,
amended.

Section 1. Section twenty of chapter four hundred and thirty-six of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended by substituting the word 'shall' for the word "may" in the first line of said section, and by striking out all of said section after the word "prevail" in the eleventh line of said section, and inserting in its place the words, 'an accurate account of the fees so received by said judge shall be by him laid before the county commissioners of Piscataquis, and he shall pay the same into the county treasury of said county quarterly on or before the first days of January, April, July and October of each year. The judge of said court shall receive a salary of five hundred dollars per year, to be paid him in quarterly payments from the county treasury of Piscataquis county, which shall be in full for his services as such judge. When the office of judge is vacant the recorder shall be entitled to the same fees received by said judge, the fees of said recorder to be paid by the judge.' So that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Section 20. The judge of said court shall demand and receive the same fees allowed by law to trial justices and clerks of the supreme judicial court for similar services, except that he shall receive for every blank writ signed by him, three cents; for the entry of civil action, fifty cents; for each warrant issued by him, one dollar; for the trial of an issue in civil or criminal cases, one dollar for the first day and two dollars for each subsequent day actually employed; and said fees for the trial of an issue in civil actions shall be paid by the plaintiff before proceeding with the trial each day, to be taxed in his costs, if he prevails. An accurate account of the fees so received by said judge shall be by him laid before the county commissioners of Piscataquis county, and he shall pay the same into the county treasury of said county quarterly on or before the first days of January, April, July and October of each year. The judge of said court shall receive a salary of five hundred dollars per year, to be paid him in quarterly payments from the county treasury of Piscataquis county, which shall be in full for his services as such judge. When the office of judge is vacant the recorder shall be entitled to the same fees received by said judge, the fees of said recorder to be paid by the judge.'
