PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fourth
Legislature

1909

Chapter 115.

An Act to amend Section one of Chapter five hundred and thirty-eight of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred eighty-nine relating to the taking of Smelts in the Sheepscot River, as amended by Chapter one hundred and sixty-five of the Private and Special Laws of nineteen hundred seven.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section one of chapter five hundred and thirty-eight of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred eighty-nine as amended by chapter one hundred and sixty-five of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred seven is hereby amended by striking out from said section the words, "A line from Thorpe Island in Boothbay in a southwesterly direction to Low Point in Georgetown, on a line drawn across all tide waters from shore to shore, from Thorpe Island to Low Point and all coves on said line between said points" and inserting in place thereof the words 'Wiscasset bridge' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Section 1. No person shall fish for smelts in the Sheepscot river or its tributaries between Wiscasset bridge and head of tide in Alna except by hook and line.'
