OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fourth Legislature

1909

Chapter 121.

An Act to amend Chapter four hundred twelve of the Private and Special Laws of nineteen hundred and seven, regulating Fishing in Swift River in the Counties of Oxford and Franklin.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Section one of chapter four hundred twelve of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended as follows: By inserting the words 'including Swift river pond' between the word "Franklin" and the word "except" in the fifth line of section one, and also by striking out the words "Wednesday and Friday" in the seventh line of said section one, and inserting the words 'Monday and Tuesday' in place thereof, and also by striking out the tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth lines of said section, so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Section 1,
chapter 412,
special laws, 1907,
amended.

'Section 1. It shall be unlawful to fish for, take, catch, or kill any kind of fish at any time in Swift river, so called, or in any of the streams, tributary thereto, situated in Rumford, Mexico, Roxbury, Byron and plantations D and E, in the counties of Oxford and Franklin, including Swift river pond, except that it shall be lawful to fish in accordance with the general law of the state in the river itself and in any of its tributaries on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week during the months of May, June and July of each year. And no person shall catch, take or kill over thirty-five fish of lawful size in any one day from any or all of these waters, under a penalty of one dollar for each and every fish caught or killed in excess of said thirty-five.'
