Chapter 126.

An Act entitled, "An Act to amend the Charter of the New England Retail Grocers' Publishing Company."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Whereas, the New England Retail Grocers' Publishing Company was organized under the general laws of the state of Maine on the twenty-fourth day of October, eighteen hundred and ninety, with the following purposes, to wit :

Statement.

"The purposes of said corporation are printing and publishing a paper called the New England Grocer, and for the purpose of doing any other business necessary to promote the circulation and profits of said paper."

And whereas, said original purposes are insufficient and unsuitable for the extended and growing business of said company, and amendment thereof is necessary for the business purposes of the company. Now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Section 1. That the purposes of said New England Retail Grocers' Publishing Company, a corporation organized under the general laws of the state of Maine, are the printing and publishing of a paper called the New England Grocer, or under such other name as said company may adopt for said publication, and for the purpose of carrying on any other business necessary to promote the circulation of said periodical.

Purposes.

CHAP. 127

Further purposes.

Section 2. To carry on the publishing, advertising, printing, binding and mailing business in all its branches, and to buy, sell, print, publish and circulate newspapers, trade journals and periodicals generally, under whatsoever name or names as may seem for the best interest to the company, but not infringing upon or adopting the name or names of other periodicals or publications.

In general.

Section 3. In general, to hold, deal with and in personal property and real estate for the purposes of the business of the company, and to sell, mortgage and incumber the same as may be deemed advisable therefor.

Business incidental to general purposes.

Section 4. To own, manage and carry on any other business cognate or incidental to the general purposes set forth in these amendments.

Approved March 12, 1909.

Chapter 127.

An Act to ratify the organization of the Virginia Spring Water Company, and authorize said company to issue bonds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Organization made valid.

The Virginia Spring Water Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the state of Maine, which organization is hereby ratified, confirmed and declared to be legal and valid, is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds secured by mortgage of its property.

—may issue bonds.
