OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fourth
Legislature

1909

Chapter 186.

An Act to regulate fishing in the tributaries of Worthley Pond in Peru, in the County of Oxford.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Fishing in tributaries to Worthley pond prohibited for six years.

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for a term of six years from the time this act takes effect to fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish in any of the tributaries of Worthley pond, in Oxford county, except to take smelts with a dip net.

Penalty.

Section 2. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this act shall be liable to the same penalty as is provided in the general law of the state for illegal fishing for and catching trout and land-locked salmon.

Court jurisdiction.

Section 3. In all prosecutions under this act, municipal and police courts and trial justices within their respective counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme and superior courts, and all fines, forfeitures and penalties received for violation of this act shall be paid forthwith by the person receiving the same to the state treasurer and credited to fines and license fees for the protection of birds and game.

Approved March 16, 1909.

Chapter 187.

An Act additional to and amendatory of Chapter twenty-nine of the private and special laws of eighteen eighty-seven entitled "An Act to incorporate the Kennebec Light and Heat Company."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Company authorized to purchase electric current from Sebasticook Water Power Co.

Section 1. The Kennebec Light and Heat Company, and its successors and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase electric current from the Sebasticook Water Power Company upon such terms as may be agreed upon and to transmit said current through the towns of Benton, Winslow and Vassalboro to and into the city of Augusta, and to supply, sell and distribute said current where, but only in such places as, said Kennebec Light and Heat Company is now or may be hereafter authorized to supply, sell and distribute electricity.

May maintain poles, wires, etc., along streets and ways in towns of Benton, Winslow and Vassalboro.

Section 2. Said Kennebec Light and Heat Company, and its successors and assigns, for the purpose of transmitting and conveying electric current from the plant in Benton of said Sebasticook Water Power Company through said towns of Benton, Winslow and Vassalboro, and to and into said city of Augusta, is hereby authorized to erect and maintain lines, poles, wires and fixtures in, upon, through, across and along the
