Chapter 209.

An Act to amend section one of chapter three hundred and fifty-six of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven, entitled "An Act to regulate the taking of white perch in Lake Sebasticook, in the town of Newport, County of Penobscot, and its tributaries."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section one of chapter three hundred and fifty-six of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended by striking out the word "June" in the fourth line of said section, and substituting therefor the word 'July,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Section 1, Chapter 356, special laws, 1907, amended.

'Section 1. There shall be an annual close time on white perch in lake Sebasticook, in the town of Newport, county of Penobscot, and in its tributaries, from the first day of April to the first day of July of each year, during which close time it shall be unlawful to fish for, take, catch, or kill any white perch. Provided further, that during the open season of each year it shall be unlawful for one person to take, catch, kill, or have in possession, more than eight pounds of white perch in one day, taken from said lake, and only for consumption in his own family.'

Close time on white perch in lake Sebasticook.

—no person shall take more than eight pounds.

Approved March 16, 1909.
