CHAP. 290

Chapter 290.

An Act to regulate fishing in Medomac River and its tributaries in the towns of Union, Washington, Appleton and Liberty.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Fishing in Medomac river and tributaries, prohibited for three years.

—may take chubs for bait.

Penalty for violation.

Jurisdiction of courts.

—fines, how disposed of.

Section 1. It shall be unlawful to fish for, take, catch, or kill any kind of fish at any time in the Medomac river, from Skidmore's mill dam in Union and Washington, in Knox county, to Light Meadows, so called, in Liberty, in Waldo county, or any of the tributaries to said river from Skidmore's mill dam to Light Meadows, so called, for a period of three years from July first, nineteen hundred and nine. Provided, however, that it shall be lawful to dip chubs for bait with a hand net in said waters.

Section 2. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this act shall be subject to the same penalty as is provided in the general law of the state for the illegal fishing for and catching trout and land-locked salmon.

Section 3. In all prosecutions under this act, municipal and police courts and trial justices within their respective counties, shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial and superior courts, and all fines, forfeitures and penalties received for violation of this act shall be paid forthwith by the person receiving the same to the state treasurer, and credited to fines and license fees for the protection of birds and game.

Approved March 24, 1909.
