PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fourth
Legislature

1909

CHAP. 366

Shall be deemed a street railroad.

Section 2. Except as modified by said chapter four hundred and ninety-five of said private and special laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and acts additional thereto or amendatory thereof, or by the provisions of this act, in so far as said People's Ferry Company shall exercise the rights, powers and privileges hereby granted, it shall be deemed a street railroad corporation and shall exercise such rights, powers and privileges subject to the provisions of said chapter fifty-three of the revised statutes, relating to street railroads, and it shall have all the additional powers and privileges conferred on street railroad corporations under said chapter fifty-three, and acts additional thereto and amendatory thereof, but nothing herein contained nor in said chapter fifty-five as amended shall authorize said People's Ferry Company to extend its railroad in said city of Portland beyond the limits prescribed in section one of this act.

Approved April 1, 1909.

Chapter 366.

An Act to authorize the Edwards Manufacturing Company to procure additional Power.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Company authorized to procure additional electric power.

—proviso.

Section 1. The Edwards Manufacturing Company, located at Augusta, is hereby authorized to generate for itself or procure from others additional electric power and may use the same only in and about its manufacturing plant for all purposes including lighting its said plant; provided, however, that said Edwards Manufacturing Company shall have authority to make any contract to procure said power from others only in case it shall be unable to procure from the Kennebec Light and Heat Company said power on the same terms offered by such others, but this proviso shall not apply to renewals of contracts once so made.

Sale and transmission of power to said company, lawful.

Section 2. The sale and transmission of power, as aforesaid, to said Edwards Manufacturing Company by other parties shall be lawful notwithstanding such other parties are not otherwise authorized to conduct business in Augusta.

Approved April 1, 1909.
