Chapter 390.

An Act to incorporate the Brunswick Power Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Corpora-

Section 1. Frederick O. Conant, Charles Sumner Cook, Arthur S. Bosworth, Constant Southworth and William D. Sewall, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby made a body corporate by the name of Brunswick Power Company, with all the powers, rights and privileges and subject to all the duties and obligations hereafter provided.

Section 2. Said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire by purchase or otherwise, real estate, water powers and privileges and rights and interests therein, also to acquire or construct, maintain and operate manufacturing and power plants of all kinds whether to be operated by water, steam or other motive power, also all such machinery, tools, appliances and other personal property as shall be necessary or convenient for any of said purposes, and to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise dispose of and deal in all the same and all the products thereof.

Section 3. Said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered, subject otherwise to the general law relating thereto, to manufacture, transmit, distribute and furnish electricity for light, heat and power, within the counties of Cumberland, Sagadahoc and Androscoggin, and to erect and maintain pole lines, power stations, machinery and other necessary equipment therein; and to sell and supply electricity for any of said purposes to any railroad or street railroad, person or corporation, or to any town, city or district within said territory, which said railroads, street railroads, persons, corporations, towns, cities and districts are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to contract with said corporation therefor. Provided, however, that, excepting the right to transmit electricity by trunk lines through any part of said territory to any other part thereof in which it legally may have or acquire the right to distribute and sell the same, and excepting the right to sell and distribute electricity in Cumberland county for power purposes only, and the right to sell and distribute electricity to any street railroad company, nothing herein contained shall authorize said corporation to engage in business in any part of said territory in competition with any other corporation legally doing, or authorized to do, a similar business in such part of said territory, without the consent of such other corporation.

Section 4. Said corporation and any other corporation organized for similar purposes and doing business in said territory are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to combine their properties, rights, privileges and franchises, by sale or lease, or otherwise not contrary to law, and the company so purchasing or otherwise acquiring the plant, property, business, rights, privileges, franchises and capital stock of the
