PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fourth
Legislature

1909

---

Section II. This act shall not take effect until it has been adopted by the legal voters of the city of Waterville at a general election, or at a special election called for that purpose.

Approved April 2, 1909.

This act not to take effect until adoption by legal voters of Waterville.

Chapter 392.

An Act to amend an Act authorizing the County Commissioners of Cumberland County to erect a County Building in Portland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

The first paragraph of chapter two hundred and thirteen of the private and special laws of the year one thousand nine hundred and three as amended by chapter three hundred and fifty-five of the private and special laws of the year one thousand nine hundred and five, and as further amended by chapter four hundred and thirty-eight of the private and special laws of the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, is hereby amended by striking out the word "eight" and inserting in lieu thereof the word 'nine,' so that said paragraph as amended, shall read as follows:

Ch. 213, special laws, 1903, as amended by ch. 355, special laws, 1905, as amended by ch. 438, special laws, 1907, further amended.

The county commissioners of the county of Cumberland are authorized to erect and maintain in the city of Portland a county building of modern, fire-proof construction, containing suitable court rooms, registries, county offices, library rooms and such other rooms, accommodations and conveniences as to such commissioners may seem necessary or desirable, and for that purpose to acquire suitable land, either by purchase, exchange, or by taking as for public uses, and in order to provide for the payment thereof to borrow money and issue interest bearing bonds of said county to an amount not to exceed in the aggregate nine hundred and fifty thousand dollars and the rate of interest on said bonds shall not exceed three and one-half per cent per annum. Said county commissioners shall cause any land so taken to be surveyed, located and so described that the same can be identified, and shall cause a plan and description thereof to be filed in their office and there recorded.

Erection of county buildings authorized.

—county authorized to issue bonds.

The filing of said plan and description shall vest the title to said land in said county, or its grantees, to be held during the pleasure of said county.

Said bonds shall be valid without first obtaining the consent of said county as provided in sections fourteen and sixteen of chapter eighty of the revised statutes.

—consent of county commissioners not required.

Approved April 2, 1909.
