Chapter 18.

An Act additional to Chapter seventeen of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, as amended by Chapter eighty-nine of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and seven, regulating the practices of Veterinary Surgery, Medicine and Dentistry.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 4, chapter 17, public laws 1905, as amended by section 2, chapter 89, public laws 1907, further amended.

Section 1. Section four of chapter seventeen of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, as amended by section two of chapter eighty-nine of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and seven, is hereby amended by striking out the first eight lines of said section and inserting the following in place thereof: 'Any person who was engaged in the practice of veterinary surgery, medicine or dentistry, or any branch thereof in this state, on the twenty-second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five, may, on or before the fifteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, register his name and address with the state board of veterinary examiners and give proof to said board that he was so in practice on said twenty-second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five, and be entitled to all the rights and privileges granted by said act as he would or might have been if he had appeared before said board at the time stated in section four of the aforesaid act,' so that said section shall read as follows:

Registration of veterinary surgeons.

'Section 4. Any person who was engaged in the practice of veterinary surgery, medicine or dentistry, or any branch thereof in this state, on the twenty-second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five, may, on or before the fifteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, register his name and address with the state board of veterinary examiners and give proof to said board that he was so in practice on said twenty-second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five, and be entitled to all the rights and privileges granted by said act as he would or might have been if he had appeared before said board at the time stated in section four of the aforesaid act. Any person shall be regarded as practicing veterinary surgery, medicine, or dentistry, or any branch thereof, within the meaning of this act, who has publicly professed to be a veterinary surgeon, or has prescribed for sick or injured animals and accepted fees for such services, or has attached to his name the title V. S. or veterinary surgeon, or any veterinary title ordinarily used. Nothing in this act shall be construed as prohibiting any person residing in the state of Maine not registered from practicing veterinary surgery, medicine or dentistry or any branch thereof, and collecting reasonable compensation for such service provided such person does not attach to his name V. S. or veterinary surgeon, or any veterinary title ordinarily used or advertised by card, sign or otherwise.'

—this act,
how construed, in certain cases.

Approved February 28, 1911.

Chapter 19.

An Act to amend Section one of Chapter one hundred seventy-three of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred and five relative to clerk hire in the office of the Register of Deeds in Kennebec County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Paragraph seven, section one, chapter one hundred seventy-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and five relative to the salary of register of deeds of Kennebec county, is hereby amended by striking out the words "one thousand" and inserting instead the words 'fifteen hundred,' so that the same as amended shall read as follows:

Paragraph 7,
section 1,
chapter 173,
public laws,
1905
amended.

'Kennebec county: Fifteen hundred dollars with fifteen hundred dollars additional for clerk hire.'

Approved February 28, 1911.

Chapter 20.

An Act to repeal Section two of Chapter one hundred and forty-eight of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five relating to the Construction of Booths at Polling Places.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

'Section two of chapter one hundred and forty-eight of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and five is hereby repealed'.

Section 2,
chapter 148,
public laws
1905 repealed.

Approved March 1, 1911.
