PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fifth
Legislature

1911

Chapter 63.

An Act to regulate procedure in Quo Warranto.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Petitions, informations and other processes in quo warranto proceedings may be made returnable before the supreme judicial court, in term time or in vacation, as and when the court may order, and by like order the cause may be heard in vacation if the justice hearing the same shall determine that justice so requires.

Quo warranto proceedings regulated.

Section 2. When in quo warranto proceedings the title to office, in a private corporation, is involved, the petition or information may be brought in the name of the interested party and the attorney general need not be a party thereto.

Proceedings when attorney general need not be a party.

Section 3. This act shall not apply to pending cases.

Not to apply to pending cases.

Approved March 22, 1911.

Chapter 64.

An Act to amend Section thirty-one of Chapter thirty-two of the Revised Statutes, relating to the penalty for trapping fur bearing animals in any of the Unorganized Townships or wild lands, and for operating a sporting camp, without first procuring a license therefor.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section thirty-one of chapter thirty-two of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "one hundred dollars" in the eighteenth line of said section and inserting in place thereof the words 'forty dollars,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 31, chapter 32, R. S., amended.

Section 31. No person shall build, occupy, maintain or keep a sporting camp, lodge or place of resort for inland hunting or fishing parties in any place, or engage in the business of hunting or trapping any of the fur bearing animals of the state in any of the unorganized townships or wild lands of the state without first procuring a license therefor from the commissioners of inland fisheries and game, and paying a fee therefor of five dollars; and he shall make such report to the commissioners as may be called for; but a license to build, occupy, maintain or keep such sporting camp, lodge or place of resort shall not be granted unless the person applying for the same files with his application therefor, the written consent of the owner or owners of the land or his or their agent upon which such camp, lodge or place of resort is or may be located; and such licensed persons may purchase for consumption in their
