1911

CHAP. 107

Section 8. Upon the commencement of condemnation proceedings the corporation seeking to thus acquire land unless otherwise provided by law may file in the clerk of court's office wherein such land is situate a petition asking that the necessity of such taking may be determined whereupon proceedings shall be had as in the case of a petition by the landowner.

Condemnation proceedings.

Approved March 28, 1911.

Chapter 107.

An Act to amend Section two of Chapter thirty-eight of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred and five.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section two of chapter thirty-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and five, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "shall" and "furnish" in the first line of said section the following: 'by himself, his clerk, servant or agent,' so that the section as amended shall read as follows:

Section 2, chapter 38, public laws 1905, amended.

'No person shall by himself, his clerk, servant or agent furnish oleomargarine in any hotel, restaurant or boarding house, or at any lunch counter, to a guest or patron thereof, instead of butter, without notifying said guest or patron that the substance so furnished is not butter.'

Oleomargarine, furnishing of, regulated.

Approved March 28, 1911.

Chapter 108.

An Act to amend Section fifty of Chapter eighteen of the Revised Statutes, relating to the public health and the prevention of Contagious Diseases.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section fifty of chapter eighteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "seventeen" in the first line and inserting in place thereof the word, 'twenty-six,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 50, chapter 18, R. S., amended.

'Section 2. Whoever wilfully violates any provision of the twenty-six preceding sections, or of said regulations and by-laws, or neglects or refuses to obey any order or direction of any local board of health or health officer authorized by said provisions, the penalty for which is not herein specifically provided, or wilfully interferes with any person or thing, to prevent the execution of the provisions of said sections or of said

Penalty for violations of certain sections.

CHAP. 109

regulations and by-laws, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars; judges of municipal and police courts and trial justices, shall have jurisdiction original and concurrent with the supreme judicial and superior courts, of all offenses under said sections.'

Approved March 28, 1911.

Chapter 109.

An Act to amend Section fifty-five of Chapter fifteen of the Revised Statutes, relating to Free High Schools.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 55, chapter 15, R. S., repealed.

Section fifty-five of chapter fifteen of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:

State aid to free high schools.

'Section 5. No town shall receive state aid for the maintenance of a free high school unless its appropriation and expenditure for such school has been exclusive of the amounts required by law for common school purposes.'

Approved March 28, 1911.

Chapter 110.

An Act to amend Chapter four of the Revised Statutes in relation to the erection of Wharves and Fish Weirs.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 96, chapter 4, R. S., amended.

Section 1. Section ninety-six of chapter four of the revised statutes is hereby amended by substituting a comma in place of the period at the end of said section and adding thereto the following: "The applicant for license to build or extend a fish weir or trap as aforesaid, first giving bond to the town, without sureties, in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned that upon the termination of such license he shall remove all stakes and brush from the location therein described,' so the said section as amended shall read as follows:

Application for license to build or extend fish weirs.

'Section 96. Any person intending to build or extend any wharf or fish weir or trap in tide waters, within the limits of any city or town, may apply in writing to the municipal officers thereof, stating the location, limits and boundaries, as nearly as may be, of such intended erection or extension, and asking license therefor. Upon receiving such application said officers shall give at least three days' public notice thereof, and shall —notice how given.
