CHAP. 147Chapter 147.

An Act to regulate the hunting and killing of Gray Squirrels.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Close time on gray squirrels.

There shall be an annual close time for gray squirrels, in which it shall be unlawful to hunt, chase, catch, kill or have them in possession, except alive, from the first day of November of each year to the first day of September of the following year. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be subject to a penalty of not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars and costs for each gray squirrel killed or had in possession, except alive, in close time. Provided, however, it shall be unlawful to hunt, chase, catch or kill any gray squirrel at any time within the limits of any city, village, private or public park or water district within this state.

—penalty.

—proviso.

Approved March 30, 1911.

Chapter 148.

An Act to amend Section four, Chapter one hundred and two of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred and five, relating to the Penobscot Tribe of Indians.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 4,
chapter 102,
public laws 1905 amended.

Section four of chapter one hundred and two of the public laws of nineteen hundred and five is hereby amended by adding after the word "services" in the last line of said section, the words 'but the compensation of the superintendent of schools of the city of Old Town for said services shall be not less than fifty dollars per year,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

School moneys of tribe how to be expended.

'Section 4. All money appropriated for schools for the Penobscot tribe of Indians shall be expended under the supervision of the agent of said tribe, subject to the approval of the governor and council, said agent shall employ the teachers and fix their salaries, limited by such appropriation. The schools upon island number one, commonly called Indian Old Town island, shall be under the care and supervision of the superintendent of schools of the city of Old Town; and those within the territorial limits of any other town, under the care and supervision of the superintending school committee of such town. Said superintendent of school committee shall visit such schools at least three times during each school term; regulate the grades and courses of study; assist the teachers and scholars by counsel; determine when any scholar of said tribe may properly be admitted or transferred to the public schools of
